Giustizia sportiva Prof. Antonio Marzocco
Teaching language:	Italian
Course Syllabus	Sports order and sports justice - The subjects of sports justice - The system of sports justice - The binding of sports justice and state jurisdiction - The national and international sports justice bodies - The CAS in Lausanne
Textbook and course materials	M. Sanino, Giustizia Sportiva, 2nd edition, CEDAM, 2022, limited to pages 77 to 393*. *It is recommended, as an introduction to the study of the subject, to read pages 3 to 75. For the study of the part relating to the Lausanne CAS the material will be provided directly by the professor.
Evaluation methods	The final exam consists of an oral exam on the topics covered during the course and included in the syllabus, as well as the regulatory and jurisprudential sources provided by the professor. In addition to the knowledge of the specific institutes covered by the exam questions, the use of specialised vocabulary, the ability to make critical connections and to organise the exposition logically will be assessed. The aim of the oral examination is to test the skills just described and to assess the level of knowledge of the topics included in the syllabus. The oral examination will normally last about thirty minutes. The final assessment is expressed in thirtieths. A possible pre-examination colloquy is planned for attending students.
Language of the exam:	Italian